

Looking to avoid surprises?

Plan ahead with the certainty of lower cost and reduced downtime.

Fixed Price Service

Do you find yourself questioning your equipment maintenance? What needs to be replaced to ensure the uptime of your equipment and at what cost? We've noticed customers frequently question what service their equipment requires and the cost that will come with it. Let us fix this for you! No more uncertainty, let us worry about what your equipment needs and how to meet your requirements.

We would like to present to you one solution that saves you both time and money Fixed Price Service.

Top Fixed Price Service Benefits:

- Requesting a fixed price service quote keeps your process running until everything is agreed.
- Full planning certainty, as the price is fixed and will cover what is required to meet your needs.
- Schedule service delivery so that it's convenient for you.
- Orders are given priority, allowing for faster service delivery.

Increase your cost savings with Fixed Price Service. You benefit from lower cost with the preventive maintenance strategy for each of your pumps.

Save time and money:

- Is your approval process impacting your equipment downtime? These delays can easily be prevented by aligning on Fixed Price Service before taking your pump out of production.
- Are you struggling with planning the cost of service for your vacuum equipment? Get rid of your struggles with Fixed Price Services, which provides you with the service you need for a fixed price. That way you will benefit from lower service cost.
- Is the alignment on what service you need lengthening your service process? Are you struggling with what is covered and how the service will maintain the quality standards of your process? Fixed Price Service is your enabler for easy decision making since everything is covered with the agreed price according to your needs.

Pioneering products. Passionately applied.